

BARRIE AND LIPTON PART.

Representative of Sir Thomas in This Country Gets Court Summons in Action.

SECURITY ABOUT CASE.

Business Relations Between the Two Men Severed and a Bitter Legal Controversy in Prospect.

Sir Thomas Lipton and David N. Barrie, who for many years has been Sir Thomas's personal and business representative in America, have parted. Mr. Barrie is no longer connected with the Lipton enterprises in this country. Not only have the business relations been severed, but the two men are now engaged in a bitter legal controversy.

The news of the split will come as a surprise to the followers of yachting in this country. All the race negotiations for the appearance of the Shamrock I. and II. in this country were practically conducted by Mr. Barrie representing the Baronet.

The fact of the pending suit leaked out in the United States Circuit Court to-day when Richard B. Alderott, Jr., as counsel for Sir Thomas, made an application for a summons in Barrie's suit against Sir Thomas. The application was granted.

W. T. Taylor, of No. 63 Wall street, counsel for Sir Thomas, has consented to accept service in the suit. The papers in the suit, which were all prepared, will probably be handed to Mr. Taylor this evening or to-morrow morning.

Mr. Alderott is connected with William T. Gilbert, of No. 346 Broadway. Mr. Gilbert was out of the city to-day, and as he has personal charge of the suit but meagre information could be gotten.

Neither Mr. Gilbert nor Mr. Alderott is the attorney of record in the matter. The case was turned over to them for prosecution by another firm of lawyers.

It was learned, however, that the suit involves about $7,000 in commissions, which Barrie claims is due him from Sir Thomas for services performed.

Mr. Alderott was seen at his office this afternoon and said: "I am not at liberty to talk about this matter to-day. The papers are all prepared in the suit and counsel for Sir Thomas Lipton has consented to accept service in the suit."

"It is not a friendly suit," he was asked.

"Well I should say not," replied Mr. Alderott, significantly.

Mr. McFarland, of the firm of McFarland, Taylor & Costello, counsel for Sir Thomas, was seen at his office, No. 63 Wall street, this afternoon and said:

"Oh, this suit against Sir Thomas is a mere matter of $7,000. I don't think Sir Thomas even knows about it. We attend to all his legal business here, and he has not even been notified about the suit."

DETROIT SEES SUN AGAIN.

First Fair Day Since June 21—Rainfall Very Heavy.

DETROIT, July 1.—Detroit is having a clear, sunny day for the first time since June 21. The rainfall for June was 6.97 inches—an excess of more than 3 inches. Corn, oats, potatoes and beans in Michigan have suffered severely from the heavy rains.

Wheat is said to be running more to stalks than to heads. Plenty of warm sunshine through July, however, will repair to a great extent the damage done.

TUG CARRIED PRETTY GIRL TO DEPARTING STEAMSHIP.

Commotion Caused by Her and a Team Made Sailing of Kronprinz Wilhelm Exciting.

A pretty girl on one end of the pier and a pair of frightened horses on the other, served to make the departure of the steamship Kronprinz Wilhelm exciting.

The pretty girl had bought a ticket to sail in the second cabin, but did not reach the pier until just as the ship was leaving. The last gang plank had been taken in and it looked as if she was to be left. Almost frantic, she rushed to the end of the pier in the midst of the crowd, crying to the police to help her.

The crowd, already formed around the entrance when Detective Moody saw the girl, called on them to get a tug for the girl. The police had all they could do to keep themselves from being pushed into the river. One young man, who gave his name as Wells, attempted to push past the policeman and was roughly handled. At last a tug came and took the young woman to the ship, badly frightened, but happy.

At the other end of the pier Detective Sergeant Moody and Leeson had been having an exciting time with two horses that had become frightened. A large crowd, in which there were many women and children, had formed around the entrance when Detective Moody saw the horses rear and start to run. Shouting to Leeson to keep the crowd back.

SUES COMPANY FOR BLOW.

Workman Claims Fellow-Employee Who Hit Him Was Irresponsible.

ELIZABETH, N. J., July 1.—A peculiar suit has been brought in the Union County Court by John W. Turner, an employee of the Bell Wood Company, who sues damages to the amount of $3,000, alleging that he was struck on the head with a sledhammer by another employee of the company named Meyer, and severely injured.

He holds the company responsible, declaring that Meyer was an incompetent and dangerous to have about. The suit will be argued in the fall term.

SUPERINTENDENT SHOT BY NURSE.

After Pleading with McCallam to Marry Her, Miss Hildebrand Wounded Him.

After vainly pleading with James K. McCallam, superintendent of the gas company at South Orange, N. J., to marry her, Anna M. Hildebrand, of No. 69 Sterling street, East Orange, fired a 22-calibre bullet into his abdomen to-day.

The small size of the bullet may save the life of the wounded man, who is now in the Orange Memorial Hospital.

The house surgeon this afternoon said that McCallam had a fighting chance for his life.

Miss Hildebrand has been committed to the county jail at Newark to await the result of his injuries.

Miss Hildebrand is a graduate of the Training School for Nurses in the New York Post-Graduate Hospital. She lived with her mother, also a trained nurse. It is said that she had been engaged to marry McCallam for a year.

After the shooting the young woman, who is very attractive, went to the Orange police station and surrendered herself. She admitted the shooting, but justified her action.

"I begged him on my knees to marry me," she said, "and he refused. Not only that, but he threatened me."

"I had the revolver in the pocket of my walking skirt, and when I found that tears and entreaties would not move him, I shot him. If more women would do as I have done there would be better men in the world."

Miss Hildebrand called at the office of the gas company this morning and asked McCallam to take a walk with her. They went to the boarding-house of Mrs. Samuel Philpot, No. 56 Snyder street, Orange, where McCallam lodged.

Mrs. Philpot met them and went with them to McCallam's room, where the girl demanded that the young man marry her.

When the shot was fired Mrs. Philpot was standing alongside McCallam, but Miss Hildebrand acted too quickly to permit interference.

Woman Is Not Sorry.

Police Marshal McChesney informed The Evening World, over the long-distance telephone, this afternoon that after making her first statement upon surrendering herself, Miss Hildebrand said no more, save to add that she felt no remorse.

She is perfectly cool, and even should McCallam die public sentiment will sustain her action.

Mrs. Hildebrand was prostrated when she learned of the act of her daughter. Evidently she had no premonition of the deed of the girl. She hastened to the police station, where she heard of the shooting and learned the story of the occurrences that had led to the crime.

The community is greatly wrought up over the shooting. McCallam is well known in the Oranges and was considered a model young man. Miss Hildebrand and her mother likewise enjoyed a wide acquaintance. The engagement of Miss Hildebrand and McCallam, it is said to have been generally known.

Two suicides within a block of each other, discovered within half an hour of each other was the record for West Fourteenth street to-day.

Mrs. M. Cornell killed herself with carbolic acid in her flat in the basement of No. 234 and a man, supposed to have been Edward F. Bagwell, inhaled illuminating gas in a furnished room house at No. 150.

Mrs. Cornell was sixty-five years old. She had not been seen since Sunday. She had been seen by her brother, Edward, who lived at No. 234 and a man, supposed to have been Edward F. Bagwell, inhaled illuminating gas in a furnished room house at No. 150.

Mrs. Cornell was sixty-five years old. She had not been seen since Sunday. She had been seen by her brother, Edward, who lived at No. 234 and a man, supposed to have been Edward F. Bagwell, inhaled illuminating gas in a furnished room house at No. 150.

Clasped to her breast the old woman held a letter that supplied the motive for her act. Another letter addressed in the same handwriting was found in the hallway, where the postman had placed it this morning. Here is the document that drove the old woman to self-destruction:

"Dear Mother—I was very much surprised at your failure to come or write, and conclude a return to your old habit. If that is the case I am extremely disgusted with you, and request that you remain away, as I don't wish to know here. I shall say you have returned to Mount Vernon, for I should be exceedingly ashamed for Dolan or Mrs. Jackson to know it."

"I don't wish to see you, either. If you wish to see me I shall be at Seventeenth street and Second avenue, this (Monday) evening. Enclosed find a dollar."

PROPER FOOD

Better Than Ocean Breezes.

It makes a lot of difference in hot weather, the kind of food one eats. You can keep the body cool if you eat breakfast on Grape-Nuts, for in its predigested form it presents the least resistance to the digestive organs and contains as much nutriment as meat, body-heating food such as heavy potatoes, etc.

Grape-Nuts is probably entitled to the claim to be the most perfectly adapted food for human needs now extant. The meat eater and vegetarians are alike charmed with its crisp taste, the delicate flavor of the grape-sugar and the nourishment to body and brain, while the housewife is attracted by its being thoroughly cooked at the factory and obtained from the grocer ready for instant use with the addition of cream, making it a cool, delicious dish, requiring no hot stove and cross cook on a hot morning.

When Grape-Nuts and Postum Food Coffee constitute the summer breakfast with the addition of a little fruit, it is not necessary to seek the ocean breezes for comfort, for external heat is unnoticed when internal coolness from proper food is felt. The recipe book in each package of Grape-Nuts gives dozens of delicious dishes.

SEEK STOLEN BONDS HERE.

Look Out for Belgian Securities in Wall Street.

Banking and brokerage houses in Wall street were notified to-day to look out for a lot of stolen Belgian bonds which are likely to be offered here for negotiation.

The warning came from the Chief of Police of Brussels, who notified Chief of Detectives Titus that the stolen securities were fifteen Belgian 3 per cent. of 1,000 francs, second series, two 500 franc 3 per cent. Belgian bonds, and two 4-1/2 per cent. county credit bonds of 1,000 francs. The banking houses were furnished with the series numbers of the securities and were asked to notify Police Headquarters if the bonds were presented for collection or collateral.

TROLLEY HIT CYCLIST.

ORANGE, N. J., July 1.—John Anderson, while riding a bicycle, was run down by a trolley on the North Jersey line in Main street, near Clinton, East Orange, to-day, and was probably fatally injured. Anderson is thirty-six years old.

"Proof That I Cured of Consumption."

"I was given up by all my physicians. I had a cough of months' standing, which all doctors failed to cure. I had hemorrhages of blood from the lungs. They pained very much, and I was daily getting weaker."

"I knew that I had consumption and must die."

"To know and feel and fully realize all of these things, and then, after all, to be cured, is extremely gratifying to one who has suffered as I have."

"My father and brother died of consumption, and I was suffering in the same way until I began to breathe those healing, oily vapors of the original Koch Lung Cure, at 48 W. 22d St., New York."

"Soon I could feel my lungs open up, and while my improvement was slow at first, gradually my air passages began to heal, and now I can truthfully say that I am a well man. I am willing to prove the truth of this statement to any one who will call upon me at my home, Rich Ave. Mount Vernon, N. Y., or at 44 Wall St., New York City, where I am employed during the day."

"I was cured by the original Koch Lung Cure, at 48 W. 22d St., New York. They give consultation free; also the first treatment."

Every need to which the Nation's Birthday can give origin may be practically met at The Big Store. Clothing for the whole family. Everything from hat to shoes. Food for the table, whether the feast be in the city, out in the country under the spreading branches of a friendly shade tree, or on the sands of the seashore.

AND FLAGS AND BUNTING, TOO. Who isn't stirred by a patriotic impulse at this time—when the Nation is preparing to celebrate its 126th birthday? What loyal American can forget that stirring Fourth of July, 1776, when Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, Roger Sherman and Robert R. Livingston sent their report to Congress in Philadelphia on the Declaration of Independence? It was a day of suspense, of nervous anxiety. The people hung in groups about the old State House. What will Congress do? Was the question that trembled on every lip.

Hours dragged. At last with sparkling eye and eager hands the bell-ringer ran to the rope that hung in the steeple. In another moment the bell was sending forth its clarion notes. The streets echoed and re-echoed the clangor. Every steeple became a broken throat. Intoxicated with a joyous sense of new-born freedom, crowds surged through the streets manifesting every possible form of jubilation. Cannon boomed triumphantly. The Declaration of Independence had been adopted! The 13 colonies gave coalition to the United States.

And so, what American doesn't thrill when he recalls those days, when he thumbs his history and thinks of the greatest nation on earth?
